The Transfiguration of Jesus

- The transfiguration is recorded in all three gospels: Matthew, Mark and Luke
- The Transfiguration of Jesus is traditionally believed to have taken place on Mount Tabor.

- The Transfiguration is considered a key event in Jesus's life alongside his baptism, crucifixion, resurrection, and ascension.
- During the transfiguration, Jesus's face shone like the sun and his clothes transform and become a dazzling white.
- The presence of Moses and Elijah, representing the Law and the Prophets, indicated that Jesus fulfilled their prophecies and teachings.
- This event served as a confirmation of Jesus's identity as the Son of God for the disciples who witnessed it.
